

QUEERING

REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

3X

Single LGBT parents report a household income at or below the poverty line 3 times more often than non LGBT identified single parents.<sup>1</sup>

LGBT individuals are more likely to receive threats of bodily harm.<sup>2</sup>

Transgender women experience police violence 4 times more often than cisgender women and men.<sup>3</sup>

46% of bisexual women have been raped in their lifetime.<sup>4</sup>

Female students who identify as lesbian and bisexual experience unintended pregnancy twice as often as their peers who identify as heterosexual.<sup>5</sup>

REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE IS
THE RIGHT TO HAVE A CHILD ON YOUR TERMS,
THE RIGHT TO NOT HAVE A CHILD,
AND THE RIGHT TO LIVE, WORK, AND PARENT THE
CHILDREN YOU HAVE IN A WORLD FREE FROM VIOLENCE.

Use gender neutral language · Support equal rights legislation that includes gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation · Start conversations about sex and gender · Champion inclusive healthcare efforts · Call or write your legislator · Invest in loving communities · Demand comprehensive sex education that includes a variety of bodies and sexual preferences · Talk to medical providers about inclusive practices · Question systems that breed injustice · Commit to intersectional work · Talk about consent · Read people's experiences with abortion from the 1 in 3 campaign · Donate to organizations committed to inclusive reproductive justice · Volunteer with groups devoted to long term change · Push back when abortion is talked about as exclusively a women's issue · Honor people's feelings · Challenge others to join you · Call out injustices around you

KENTUCKY HEALTH JUSTICE NETWORK
IS COMMITTED TO QUEERING REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE